How are roommates paired?

After applications are processed, each resident will receive the Roommate Connection form. This form is not mandatory but helps us to pair roommates based on personality and living preferences. Residents can also put in a request for a specific roommate on this form.

How many people live in one apartment?

All apartments are two bedroom units with anywhere from 2-4 people.

How do I pay my rent?

We use a system called Tenant Cloud that allows residents to pay rent electronically each month through the site. This is the same place that lease agreements and maintenance requests can be made.

Is there a meal plan?

No, but there is a Vons Grocery store 0.2 miles from the Cadence as well as multiple restaurants and coffee shops.

Is there a Stove/Oven in the apartments?

No, but microwaves are included. Residents are also permitted to bring small appliances without open heat sources (e.g. toaster ovens, air fryers, crock pots).

Is there a curfew?

No. However, "quiet hours" are enforced between 10pm and 9am on weekdays and 12pm-9am on weekends.

No, at this time, first year students are not required to live at the Cadence. However, it is HIGHLY encouraged for the first year of college.

What if I decide to cancel my housing agreement?

Housing agreements are a binding contract. Residents will be held to full financial responsibility for the entirety of their lease.

What if I don't get along with my roommate?

We encourage students to resolve conflicts with their roommate first. If needed, seek assistance from your Resident Assistants (RAs) to resolve the conflicts. If you do not find the solutions satisfactory, you may request for a room switch. Room Switches must be approved and will require a $250 fee.

Is there a gender-neutral housing option?

Yes. We offer all-female units, all-male units, and gender-neutral units.
